

Interscience Management Review

Volume 3 | Issue 1

Article 1

January 2010

Editorial

SRIKANTA PATNAIK

President IRNet, Bhubaneswar, srikantapatnaik@iimt.ac.in

Follow this and additional works at: <https://www.interscience.in/imr>

Part of the Business Administration, Management, and Operations Commons, and the Human Resources Management Commons

Recommended Citation

PATNAIK, SRIKANTA (2010) "Editorial," Interscience Management Review. Vol. 3 : Iss. 1 , Article 1.
Available at: <https://www.interscience.in/imr/vol3/iss1/1>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Interscience Research Network. It has been accepted for inclusion in Interscience Management Review by an authorized editor of Interscience Research Network. For more information, please contact sritampatnaik@gmail.com.

Editorial

The first paper entitled “Survey of E-Governance Systems with focus on Development Approaches and Interface Quality” by G. Rani & S. Chakraverty discussed the surveys the plethora of existing approaches and models for e-governance and presents a comparative evaluation based on certain qualitative parameters.

The next paper by Pratesh Jayaswal et al on “Vendor Selection Methodology Based on Multi Criteria Decision Making” focused on fuzzy set theory, which helps in vagueness of the system a fuzzy decision approach is developed where are resourcing of vendors to select suitable vendor for materials is made.

The 3rd paper titled “Coordination, Collaboration and Integration for Supply Chain Management” by Himanshu S. Moharana et all in their paper emphasized on the easy access for coordination, collaboration and integration among the suppliers for effective Supply Chain Management.

The 4th paper on “Environment And Sustainable Development” by Shalini Singh & Amit Kumar broadly tries to outline the basic concept of sustainable development, the world-wide activities initiated to deal with environmental problems and the major strategies that can be adopted by nations for sustainable development.

The next paper by Roopal Shrivastava & Sangya Shrivastava on “Management Practices with Indian Work Culture: Towards New Frontiers in Management Thinking” analyzed the adaptation experience of expatriates in India and highlighted the peculiarities in Indian organizational behavior and management culture.

The 6th paper by Jayabrata Banerjee & Swarnendu Roy discussed the customer perception levels about mutual fund product in their paper titled “Customer Perception on Mutual Fund Product: A Technical Analysis”.

The 7th paper entitled “Review of Indian Work Culture and Challenges Faced by Indians in the Era of Globalisation” by Soniya Jhunjhunwala discussed on the effect of globalization on the work culture. This paper is outcome of a review of Indian work culture and work culture in S.A. This paper examines some differences between Indian work environment and American work environment.

The next paper titled “Role of Bio-Technology in the Development of Agriculture Sector in India” by N. Swapna disussed the study on performance of Biotechnology in the development of Agriculture sector in the various forms.

The 9th paper by N. Swapna on “Performance of e-Governance in Indian Economy” reveals the performance of e-governance in India in the context of its role in Agriculture sector, rural development and promoting social welfare.

The 10th paper on “Impact of Training Practices on Employee Productivity: A Comparative Study” by Rohan Singh and Madhumita Mohanty studied the directions for future research by applying different level of analysis on exploring the impact of training practices on employee productivity.

The 11th paper by Lekhasri Samantsinghar titled as “Identifying Critical Issues Relating to Environmental Audit of Solid Waste Management in Large Educational Institutions; A case study of Ravenshaw University, Cuttack, Odisha” attempts to provide a framework for policy and planning strategies relating to solid waste management in public and private educational institutions within the framework of Sustainable Integrated Solid Waste Management practices.

The authors of the 12th paper Shalini Gupta & Alok Gupta analyzed an existing system of vendor rating and proposed a better system of vendor rating for the organization in their paper entitled “A Fuzzy Multi Criteria Decision Making Approach for Vendor Evaluation in a Supply Chain”.

Prof.(Dr.)Srikanta Patnaik
Editor-in Chief, IMR